

Chadwick Fisher - Director of Security

Chadwick Fisher is Board Director of Security with the Halton Black History Awareness Society. Since the age of 20, Chadwick has worked security for various clubs and events. Born and raised in Burlington, Chadwick has deep roots within Halton's farming community. Fisher farms was established in Burlington in 1920, serving the community with fresh pears!

Chadwick keeps busy by supporting the family farm, running his renovation company (Fortius Building Services) and working full time as a Foreman for the fiber optic industry. Chadwick has been a long-time supporter of Black history, volunteering his time in Owen Sound for one of the longest running Emancipation celebrations and one of the first volunteers for the launch of the Halton Freedom Festival with the HBHAS.