

Richelle Papin - Education Consultant

Richelle Papin is a Board Director/Education Advisor with the Halton Black History Awareness Society, a retired trustee for the Halton District School Board, and represented the HDSB at many Black History Month events in and around Halton and Burlington. Richelle completed a Bachelor's degree from the University of Toronto, Mississauga Campus, and a graduate certificate from Sheridan College, Oakville Campus, and a bilingual certificate from Laval University in Quebec City, Quebec. Richelle contributed her expertise on the HDSB Special Education Advisory and French Advisory Committees and was a Student Trustee Mentor.

Richelle believes that education is a life-long adventure that starts at birth and continues after high school by pursuing many pathways including university, college, apprentice, work and community

Richelle who was predominantly raised in Burlington also lived 5 years in Ghana, West Africa as a child and has a sound knowledge of Canadian Black History, race relations, and the necessity of cultural education within society.